

Critical Skills and Practice

Tutorial 4 - Writing in Practice

1 Introduction (5 minutes)

This is time to ask questions or share how your semester is going.

2 Project Update (5 minutes)

Take some time to turn and talk to a partner about how the project is going, any issues you've run into, and any progress you've made.

3 Outlining a Proposal (5 minutes)

Go through your proposal and outline a written proposal for a relevant audience to that project. You should explain the timeline, the criteria for success, and any information that the recipient of the proposal would need to know about the project.

4 Sharing the Outline (5 minutes)

Turn and talk with a partner about the outline as it stands. Provide feedback to one another.

5 Write Your Proposal (20 minutes)

Use this time to write the proposal. It does not need to be complete, but it should have at least a few complete sentences as part of a coherent paragraph.

6 Sharing the Paragraph (5 minutes)

Share a portion of what you've written with a classmate. You should provide and receive feedback.

7 Closing (5 minutes)

Time to ask questions.
